GALLANTRY IN FLYING OPERATIONS

nearing the target area the aircraft was struck by shrapnel. The fuselage was pierced in many places. Two more large holes were torn in the airframe, one in the starboard wing and the second near the mid-upper turret. The hydraulic gear was damaged and much oil seeped away and caught fire. The flames brilliantly illuminated the aircraft, and at this moment a fighter attacked. W/O. Robertson took skilful evading action, however, whilst F/O. Sharer, despite a most painful wound in the knee, successfully fought the fire. After extinguishing the flames, F/O. Sharer returned to his post and, although his turret was unserviceable, he maintained constant vigilance. In spite of heavy odds, W/O. Robertson completed a successful attack and afterwards flew the badly damaged aircraft back to this country. He displayed great skill, courage and tenacity. F/O. Sharer also proved himself to be a valiant member of aircraft crew, and his efforts contributed materially to the safe return of the aircraft.

A/S/L. Harold Stanley Lisson, R.C.A.F., No. 418 (R.C.A.F.) Sqdn. (Jarrow, Alta.).

This officer has completed very many sorties, during which he has attacked airfields and installations with success. In air fighting S/L. Lisson has shot down two enemy aircraft at night. His fine fighting qualities have always been evident and he has set an outstanding example of keenness and devotion to duty.

F/O. Colin Gowans Finlayson, R.C.A.F., No. 418 (R.C.A.F.) Sqdn. (Killam, Alta., and Victoria).

This officer is an observer of high merit and his fine work throughout the many sorties in which he has taken part has earned great praise. In the course of his tour many airfields and much enemy transport has been successfully attacked. In addition to these successes, F/O. Finlayson has assisted in the destruction of three enemy aircraft at night and two by day. He has displayed great skill, courage and resolution.

F/O. Arthur Edmond Franklin, R.C.A.F., No. 418 (R.C.A.F.) Sqdn. (Zealandia, Sask., and Prince Rupert).

This officer has taken part in very many sorties, involving attacks on a wide variety of targets. He has displayed great courage and coolness and his high standard of navigational ability has contributed materially to the many successes obtained. His services have been of great value.

F/O. Edward Arthur Thomas Taylor, R.C.A.F., No. 252 Sqdn. (Winnipeg).

One night in March, 1944, F/O. Taylor was detailed for a meteorological flight. Having completed this task, he then flew on to seek enemy aircraft and succeeded in engaging and destroying two Junkers 52. At all times this officer has exhibited exceptional courage and determination.

DISTINGUISHED FLYING MEDAL

Can/R156584 Sgt. Harry Glass, R.C.A.F., No. 429 (R.C.A.F.) Sqdn. (Dufferin, Ont., and Toronto).

This airman was the flight engineer of an aircraft detailed to attack Nuremberg one night in March, 1944. During the operation the aircraft was repeatedly attacked by fighters and sustained extensive damage. A fire commenced, but Sgt. Glass, by his gallant and determined efforts, succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Later, whilst over the North Sea on the homeward flight, the pilot was forced to bring the aircraft down on to the water. Two wounded members of the crew were in danger of losing their lives, but were saved by Sgt. Glass, who also assisted other members of the crew into the dinghy. He proved a tower of strength in most distressing circumstances.

1339529 Sgt. Archibald Ronald Phillips, R.A.F.V.R., No. 433 (R.C.A.F.) Sqdn. (Dagenham).

One night in March, 1944, this airman was the navigator of an aircraft detailed to attack Berlin. On the return flight the aircraft was hit by anti-aircraft fire and Sgt. Phillips was struck by a fragment of shrapnel, sustaining wounds to the chest and arm. Although weak from the loss of blood he continued his navigational duties and guided his pilot safely back to this country. He set a fine example of courage, fortitude and devotion to duty.

A Canadian soldier's wife writes: "May I take this opportunity of thanking you for the pleasure which I and many of my friends have derived from CANADA'S WEEKLY? With many of our friends and relations serving with the Canadians, it is the only means we have of obtaining reliable news of them. To me, also, it gives an idea of the life and conditions of the country to which, God willing, my husband will take me when this war is over."
